

C.W. Post is located in Nassau County on Northern Boulevard (Route 25A) in the suburban Long Island community of Brookville. We are only 25 miles from Manhattan.

TRAIN- FROM PENNSYLVANIA STATION- Take either the Long Island Rail Road's Port Jefferson train line to the Hicksville station or the Port Washington-Manhasset line to the Great Neck station or the Manhasset station or the Oyster Bay train to the Greenvale station. The Great Neck station and the Hicksville station both have bus service to the C.W. Post Campus. Taxi service to the campus is available from both the Greenvale and the Manhasset stations. To reach the Long Island Rail Road call (516) 822-5477.

Directions to the Administration Building, Great Hall

Entering the C.W. Post Campus

FROM THE EAST GATE (closest to 107)- as you enter campus make a right onto University Drive. Take this to Scholar Court and make a left. You will see a white security booth.

There are two locations for parking: You can make a left just past the security booth and park in that lot. Once you have parked, walk up the hill towards the Administration Building. The Great Hall is located in this building (the former home of Marjorie Merriweather Post); OR you can drive past the security booth, staying straight, drive up the hill (parking may be limited in this area).

FROM THE WEST GATE: (Closest to Glen Cove Road), Entrance will say Tilles Center: Make a left onto University Drive, take this to Scholar Court and make a right. SEE PARKING DIRECTIONS ABOVE.

All Events are FREE and open to the public Any questions, call Christina Hamm (Program Coordinator for the Institute) at 631-287- 8109.
